DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claims 9, 14, 18, 20, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moake (US 5,469,736).

The apparatus of Moake includes all the limitations of claims 9, 14, 18, and 20 including: a receiving pocket (54), a mount (56), a through bore and interior and exterior surfaces (figure 2), and a sonde in a exterior pocket (48).

With respect to the dependant claims Moake also teaches: a shock resistant holder (56)-claim 21.

3. Claims 9-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Morris et al. (US 6,050,350)

The apparatus of Morris et al. includes all the limitations of claims 9, 14, 17, 18, and 20 including: a receiving pocket (column 4, line 51), a mount (figure 2), a collar w/ shock
